The Queen's Palace, May 13.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Rooke to be one of the Gentlemen Ushers, Quarter Waiters, to Her Majesty, in the Room of Henry Reveley, Esq;

Whitehall, May 15.

THE following Intelligence from the East-Indies, received by His Majesty's Ship Crocodile, has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Bombay Castle, December 30, 1783.

HIS Majesty's Ship Crocodile arrived the 26th Instant from Bengal and Madras. She left Bengal about the Middle of November, but has brought no Advices from the Governor General and Council. A Letter received by her from the Select Committee at Madras, dated the 4th Instant, gives an Account of the Progress of Messr. Sadlier and Staunton, and of some Steps actually taken in the mutual Evacuation of Conquests. The General of Tippoo Saib's Army in the Carnatic was in full March to the Changamah Pass, accompanied by these Gentlemen; and their Arrival is mentioned by Tippoo Saib in his Letters to General Macleod as an Event that will bring with it a Certainty of Peace.

Some Boats with Sepoys having been wrecked near Cannanore, in the late bad Weather upon the Malabar Coast, and about Two Hundred of them seized and detained by the Biddy, notwithstanding repeated Applications made for their Release, both by General Macleod, and the Resident at Tillicherry; and the Cannanore Government being on all Occasions inimical to the Company, the General, immediately after the Relief of Mangalore, declared his Intention to take Satisfaction for these Injuries. In a Letter received within these few Days, we are advised of the Place being taken, and promised further Particulars in a short Time; but in th Letter the General mentions that the Nabob Tippoo Saib had desired him to desist; and claimed the Biddy as his Ally: The General however assures us that no bad Consequences will ensue.

The separate Treaty with Mhadjee Scindia is arrived. The President and Select Committee have just received a Letter from the Peshwa, in Answer to their's, wherein he expresses his full Acquiescence in the Treaty, and his Readiness to join with the English in offensive Measures against Tippoo Saib, should he fail in performing the Conditions required from him.

Bombay Castle, January 10, 1784.

LATE last Night Dispatches arrived from Brigadier-General Macleod, dated on board the Ranger Snow, off Mangalore, the 28th and 29th Ultimo.

In the first the General gives a particular Detail of the Capture of Cannanore, and in the second advises, in general Terms, that the Negotiations for Peace were going on, and that Tippoo Saib had not refused Permission to re-victual Mangalore, which Service the General was then performing, the Boats being in the River, and the Vessels under Way with the Provisions for Onore.

Constantinople, April 16. Letters from Smyrna mention that the Plague has again broken out in that Neighbourhood in a Manner really alarming.

Liege, May 1. His Serene Highness the Prince-Bishop of Liege died Yesterday Afternoon at his Castle of Heck, of a Fit of Apoplexy, in the Sixty-fifth Year of his Age.

Leghorn, April 30. The Ship Great Dutchess of Tuscany has been fortunately recovered in the Port of Cherri, in the Island of Zant, by the Care of the British Consul and his Agent. The Captain's Wife, Mr. William Astley, Mr. Clark, a Jew Passenger, and an English Sailor are all safe. These were the only Persons left on board with the Pirates when the Captain and the rest of the Crew abandoned the Vessel. The Three Pirates have been executed, by Order of the Venetian Governor.
